Description: tomato A2SV (Africa to Silicon Valley), a hub of innovation in the field of technology education, is a US-based nonprofit academy empowering Africa's tech revolution. With a unique blend of comprehensive software engineering training and tech-driven solutions, A2SV is more than an academy; it's a movement.Through collaborations with esteemed African universities like Addis Ababa University and the University of Ghana, and partnerships with tech titans such as Google, Meta, and Databricks, A2SV has created a thriving ecosystem for emerging talent since 2019. Our program is absolutely free, breaking down financial barriers, nurturing dreams, and democratizing the path to a tech-driven future.
